CONSTANTINOPLE, May 30.

THE Porte has delivered to the Ruſſian Ambaſſador 800 Slaves of his Country, 700 of whom had ſerv'd on board the Grand Signior's Gallies. Tho' the Ambaſſador from the Sophy of Perſia is very much carreſs'd by the Porte, 'tis ſtill ſaid that the Perſians have form'd the Seige of Kars and Balſora.

Leghorn, July 1. N. S. Letters from Conſtantinople ſay, that Kouli Kan was on the March with a very numerous Army to attack the Dagheſtan Tartars, whoſe Country lies between the Caſpian Sea, Perſia, and the Circaſſians, who are Subjects of Ruſſia; that the Porte nevertheleſs hopes for a ſpeedy Accommodation with Kouli Kan, and had for that Purpoſe reſolv'd to grant moſt of his Demands.

Vienna, July 5. N. S. On the 25th of laſt Month the Coronation of the Queen of Hungary was perform'd at Peterſburgh with Solemnity and Magnificence, and with all the Ceremonies and Formalities obſerved on ſuch Occaſion in that Kingdom. Her Majeſty was crowned in the Church of St. Martin. From thence a Proceſſion was made by the principal Officers of the Kingdom, the Prelates, Nobility, Barons, and Knights of St. Stephen, who attended in their proper Habits and in great Number, on Horſeback; her Majeſty being in her Coach. They all paſſed out of the City towards a Convent, before which a Scaffold was erected in the open Field, and cover'd with Cloth; her Majeſty aſcending it, with the Primate, Palatine, Biſhops and Barons, took an Oath, holding up their Right Hand in publick View, to maintain the Liberties and Priviledges of the Kingdom. Thence the Proceſſion moved towards the Danuba, and being come, according to ancient Cuſtom, to a certain Riſing Ground, her Majeſty alighted from her Coach, and mounting a Horſe with rich Furniture, drew a Sword, and turning to the four Quarters of the World, flouriſhed it every Time ſhe turned, in Token that ſhe would defend the Kingdom againſt its Enemies on all Sides.

LONDON, June 29.

From the Paris A-la-main.

Extract of a Letter from GENOA, dated June 28.

"Laſt Week a pretty extraordinary Incident happen'd here. A ſmall Engliſh Man of War, after anchoring in this Port, went out to cruize upon the Catalan Privateers; but growing impatient at meeting with none, and having ſeen under the Cannon of this Place a Genoeſe Tartan laden with Salt Tunney, which was come from Sardinia, the Captain made her bring to, and finding that ſhe had no Licence, he made Prize of her, notwithſtanding he was fired upon from the Battery of the Light-Houſe. After this Action he ſent aſhore, in the Long-Boat, his Lieutenant with another Officer and eight Sailors, who were immediately all put under Arreſt, and the Long-Boat drawn up into the Wet Dock. The Engliſh Captain hearing no more of them, went the next Day himſelf in the Cock-Boat, with a white Flag, a Drummer, and four Soldiers with their Bayonets fix'd on their Pieces, to demand his Long-Boat, and the Men; but being given to underſtand that he muſt firſt of all releaſe the Tartan he had taken, he went back to his Ship raving like a Madman, without giving any Anſwer. The Day following a Council was call'd, at the iſſue of which a Courier was ſent to the Republick's Secretary at the Court of Turin, with Orders to complain of this Proceeding to the Engliſh Ambaſſador reſiding there. In the mean time the Government has ſent out two Gallies well arm'd to watch the Engliſh Ship and prevent her taking any other Veſſels.

From Barcelona they tell us, that the Tranſports hired there for the King of Spain's Service have been diſmiſſed, except ſuch as will be contented with half Pay; hence they infer that no Troops will be ſent to Italy by Sea.

Letters from Hanover of the 11th Inſt. N. S. poſitively tell us, that the Troops of that Electorate will begin their March forthwith; that the Regiments oppointed for that Service, are actually receiving Money for Proviſions and other Neceſſaries; that they are augmenting the Corps belonging to the Train of Artillery; that every Regiment is to carry two Pieces of Cannon into the Field with them; and that the Surgeons and Chaplains of the Army are already nominated.

On the 8th of June, a Barbary Row-Boat Cruizier, belonging 'tis thought to Tunis, boarded a French Veſſel which the Day before ſail'd from Naples, laden with Wine, kill'd the Crew and four Paſſengers, viz. a Knight of Malta, and three Officers of the King's Regiment, and of that called the Regiment of Burgundy, and after having plunder'd the Veſſel left it adrift with only a Boy on board. It was driven by the Wind to the Iſland of Ponza.

July 1. Letters of the 13th ult. from Vienna ſay, that on the Day the Queen of Hungary made her publick Entry at Petersburgh, ſhe was preſented with the Keys by the Magiſtrates, which ſhe juſt touch'd; and after they had the Honour to kiſs the Hands of her Majeſty, and the Great Duke of Tuſcany, ſhe repair'd to the Aſſembly of the States, to which ſhe made a pathetic Speech in Latin, recommending the Velt Marſhal Count de Palſi for their Palatine, who was at the ſame Time unanimouſly choſen.

Dublin, July 4. Yeſterday the beſt American Wheat was ſold at our Quay for only 37s. a Barrel, and they ſold Flour at 17s. a Hundred; which is great and good News for our Poor.

London, July 7. The States of the Dutchy of Courland have unanimouſly choſe Prince Lewis Erneſt, of Brunſwick, for their Duke, who has accepted of that Dignity; and on the 20th ult. they ſent Deputies to the King and Republick of Poland, to demand the Inveſtiture of that Dutchy and Semigalia in that Prince's Favour.

July

July 9. We hear from Dublin, that there is a Field of Wheat belonging to Mr. Barry at Fray, of ſo uncommon a height that ſome Gentlemen who were there laſt Monday, had the Curioſity to meaſure ſome of it, and found the Stalk and Ear to be 5 Feet 5 Inches and a half, the Ear meaſuring about 6 Inches.

They write from Madrid, that the Court will iſſue Orders forthwith for building ſeveral new Men of War; and that an Advice Ship is ſent with freſh Inſtructions to the Governor of the Havannah, and to Don Rodrigue de Torres.

July 13. The Royal George, one of the Firſt Rates that went out with Sir John Norris, is return'd back again into Harbour; but for what Reaſon as yet we do not hear.

WILLIAMSBURG, Septemb. 18.

On Monday laſt, the Ten Spaniſh Priſoners who were brought in by Capt. Goodman, as mentioned in our laſt, were brought to Town and committed to Priſon; but are indulg'd with the Liberty of walking about ſometimes, and are treated with ſuch Humanity and Charity as become Engliſhmen, even to Enemies.

On Wedneſday laſt, Sir Yelverton Peyton, in the Hector Man of War, returned to Kiquotan, from a Cruiſe, after having convoy'd eleven Ships, chiefly loaden with Tobacco, 60 Leagues to Sea, from the Capes: He has been in his Cruiſe ſeveral Leagues to the Southward, and ſaw only 2 or 3 Veſſels, which he ſpoke with, one a Ship from Topſham, bound for Maryland, with Tranſports, that has been 16 Weeks at Sea; another, a Schooner, from New-England, bound for York River, who had been 13 Weeks on his Paſſage, the Maſter and Men in a ſtarving Condition; and that he ſpared them ſome Proviſions to keep them from periſhing.

BOSTON, Sept. 28.

Laſt Monday Night Capt. Oliver arrived here in a large Ship from Jamaica, by whom we are informed, that according to General Wentworth's Orders, all the Troops both ſick and well were gone from that Iſland to the Camp at Cuba.

By a Scooner juſt now arrived in 27 Days from Jamaica, we are informed, that ſeveral Tranſports under Convoy of two Men of War, were arrived at Cumberland from England.

NEW-YORK, Octob. 5.

Extract of a Letter from Bermuda to a Gentleman in New-York, dated the 17th of Sept. 1741.

---- "On Tueſday laſt a Spaniſh Privateer came off the Eaſt End of this Iſland; and took a Fiſhing Boat with two Negroes in it, and about 11 at Night ſent 30 Priſoners aſhore, among whom was Capt. Clack and Capt. Anter, both from London, bound to Virginia, taken in one Day within ſix Miles of Cape Henry; and Capt. North from Barbados was taken the Day before, whoſe Scooner they ſunk in the Sea, he was bound to Maryland. They alſo took a fine Sloop, of which they made a Privateer. In the Evening they ſaw two Sloops and two Ships coming out of Virginia, but the Wind blowing hard, only one of them got out, and came up with the Spaniard, and fired upon her, the Spaniards being but 26 in Number, only four of them would fight, and thereupon they bore away, and out-ſail'd the Virginia Sloop, but ſaw them come up with Capt. Anter's Ship that Evening, and in the Morning ſaw them carrying her round the Cape; but whether they retook Capt. Clack's Ship they cannot tell. The Spaniſh Captain miſſing his two rich Prizes, fretted very much, and even bit his Fingers to Pieces. After they had put their Priſoners aſhore at Bermudas, they made the beſt of their Way to the Havanna, having but 26 Men on board, the reſt of their Company being ſent away in the Prizes they had taken."

Saturday laſt arrived here the Brigantine Violatta, W. Richards Maſter, from Briſtol, in ſix Weeks, by whom we have Advice, by the laſt Accounts, That a French War was every Moment expected, &c. That the French had marched a great many Troops towards Germany and the Netherlands; and that there was an Account, that an Embargo was to be laid on all Shipping two Days after Capt. Richards ſailed, on which Account a great many Veſſels ſailed that had not then got their full Loading. That Sir John Norris, by laſt Account received at Briſtol, was cruiſing off Cape Finiſter, having been joined by the firſt Rate Ship that turned back (who ſprung her Fore-maſt) and by two other Ships of the Line of Battle; and that three of our Men of War had been at Vigo, from whence they took four Spaniſh Privateers, and four Engliſh Veſſels, that were taken by them and carried into that Place. The Swedes and Ruſſians have declared War, and the Swedes have ordered their Fleet to ſeek out the Ruſſians; that nine Sail of Swede Ships were caſt away on a Reef of Rocks. It is alſo ſaid, that the Elector of Bavaria had aſſembled his Troops, and had begun Hoſtilities againſt the Queen of Hungary.

Laſt Monday a French Ship, about 400 Tons, came in here to refit, having met with a violent Storm at Sea, which damaged her Maſts, Rigging, &c. She came from Port Lewis in Hiſpaniola, bound to Bourdeaux in France, loaden with Sugar and Indigo, but great Part of the Sugar is waſh'd out of the Caſks.
